NEW YORK, NY and FORT LAUDERDALE, FL -- (Marketwired) -- 11/19/13 -- JetBlue Airways (NASDAQ: JBLU) today announces that tickets are now on sale to what will be its 84th destination, Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago. Nonstop service to the popular Caribbean destination will begin from New York's John F. Kennedy airport on February 24, 2014, followed by nonstop service from Fort Lauderdale/Hollywood on May 1, 2014, subject to receipt of government operating authority.

Customers can now book flights on JetBlue.com starting at $199 one way from JFK to Port of Spain, valid for travel between March 10 and April 9, 2014. For flights from Fort Lauderdale/Hollywood to Port of Spain, fares are now available for as low as $144 for travel from May 1 and June 19, 2014 (blackout dates May 22, 2014 through May 27, 2014). Tickets must be booked by November 23, 2013.

"Trinidad is a very popular destination, but for too long, travelers flying to the island have been underserved by existing airline options, so we are excited to now offer customers the unparalleled JetBlue experience and great fares to Port of Spain," said JetBlue vice president network planning Scott Laurence.
