JetBlue Launches Flights Between Salt Lake City and Orlando

New Service Offers Connections to the Caribbean and Latin America

SALT LAKE CITY, UT -- (Marketwired) -- 11/12/14 -- JetBlue Airways (NASDAQ: JBLU) today launches a new daily nonstop service from Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC) to Orlando International Airport (MCO), one of the airline's focus cities. The Utah capital is JetBlue's 24th nonstop destination from Orlando, and will provide faster connections to the Caribbean and Latin America, including destinations in the Bahamas, Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Jamaica, Mexico and Puerto Rico.

"JetBlue's new route between Salt Lake City and Orlando is a great addition to our growing network, whether you're traveling for business, hitting the world-renowned slopes of Utah, or visiting the great attractions of Central Florida," said Frankie Littleford, JetBlue's Vice President of Customer Support. "On behalf of the more than 2,500 JetBlue crewmembers based in Salt Lake City, welcome aboard!"

The new service is the third nonstop JetBlue service out of Salt Lake City, where the airline offers flights to both New York City's JFK Airport and Long Beach Airport near Los Angeles. Customers traveling with JetBlue between Salt Lake City and Orlando will enjoy the airline's award-winning in-flight experience, which includes unlimited free snacks and non-alcoholic drinks, free seatback entertainment, and the most legroom in coach of any U.S. airline, based on average fleet-wide seat pitch

JetBlue's Schedule between Salt Lake City and Orlando, effective November 12, 2014:

SLC - MCO	MCO - SLC
11:59 p.m. - 06:10 a.m. (+1)	08:20 p.m. - 11:07 p.m.
