JetBlue Inflight Crewmembers Decline to Ratify Contract

Nov 20, 2020

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- JetBlue (NASDAQ: JBLU) with its inflight crewmembers represented by the Transport Workers Union (TWU), today announced that crewmembers have voted not to approve the tentative agreement between JetBlue and TWU.

“We are disappointed in the results of the vote,” said Ian Deason, head of customer experience, JetBlue. “Both the TWU and JetBlue worked through unprecedented circumstances to reach an agreement that was fair to our inflight crewmembers. We will work with TWU to determine next steps.”
