

JetBlue Adds Flights and Introduces Mint Service to Bozeman This Winter: Elevating Travel Experience from Boston and New York

New York, NY (August 26, 2024) – JetBlue (Nasdaq: JBLU) is pleased to announce it will add its premium Mint service each weekend to Bozeman Yellowstone International Airport (BZN) during the height of the Montana ski season. Starting in February, JetBlue, the only airline offering nonstop service from Boston Logan International Airport (BOS) and New York’s John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK) to Bozeman, will offer Mint service on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays from both Boston and New York, providing customers with an unparalleled flying experience to one of the most sought-after destinations in the Rocky Mountains. Tickets are now available for sale at jetblue.com.

With the introduction of Friday, Saturday and Sunday Mint service, JetBlue will not only elevate the travel experience for customers, but also increase the frequency of flights to the destination. Until now, JetBlue has operated late-winter seasonal service to Bozeman from New York and Boston on alternating days with its core service, which will continue during the week. The addition of Mint on these routes reflects JetBlue’s commitment to meeting the evolving needs of its customers by offering superior travel options with an elevated in-flight experience and reinforces the airline’s position as a leader in premium leisure travel in the Northeast.

“We are excited to introduce our award-winning Mint experience to Bozeman and Big Sky, enhancing the travel experience for our customers flying from Boston and New York,” said Dave Jehn, vice president, network planning and airline partnerships, JetBlue. “With the introduction of Mint and the increased frequency of flights on weekends, we are committed to offering our customers premium travel options, making their journey to Bozeman and back an exceptional experience.”

Key features of JetBlue’s Mint Experience:

- Fully lie-flat beds with Tuft & Needle® Adaptive foam cushions, complemented by a Tuft & Needle-designed comforter and pillow
- Restaurant-style small plates curated by Delicious Hospitality Group’s (DHG) popular New York City restaurants Legacy Records, Charlie Bird and Pasquale Jones
- 15-inch (or larger) TV filled with free on-demand movies and shows, live TV, curated content, plus meditation and sleepscapes from Open and more.
- A dedicated Mint check-in line and access to priority security in select airports
- Priority boarding and preferred bag claim
- Travel and wellness essentials in amenity kits special designed by Caraa
- JetBlue’s signature onboard experience Bozeman-based customers already know and love, including free, unlimited, high-speed Fly-Fi; all at an attractive fare.

Fly high to Big Sky Country

Nestled in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, Bozeman is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts and the gateway to the nation's oldest national park. In the winter, travelers flock to the area to enjoy Montana's scenic ski resorts and all the activities that make Bozeman a winter wonderland: from making fresh tracks at the snow-covered Big Sky and Bridger mountains to soaking in the soothing natural hot springs.

Northeast growth and investment with JetForward

Mint service to Bozeman comes as JetBlue continues to invest in providing its customers with exceptional travel experiences to popular destinations and new markets and works to refocus its network in line with the airline's JetForward strategy. With a focus on leisure and VFR (visiting friends and relatives) routes from the airline's Northeast focus cities, JetBlue continues to strengthen its position as a leader in leisure and premium leisure travel in the Northeast.

In Boston, JetBlue is proud to offer more domestic lie-flat seats than any other carrier, offering even more options and value for customers. Recently, JetBlue announced an expansion in New England, including year-round service in some of the most popular leisure routes from Boston Logan Airport, which will add 20 percent more seats in New England year-over-year this winter. Our new offer to Boston builds on recent additions to our Mint offerings this winter to Phoenix.

As New York's Hometown Airline®, JetBlue will be the only carrier to offer non-stop lie-flat service from New York to Bozeman. This builds on our recent expansion of Mint offerings from JFK to Vancouver and San Juan, giving more premium leisure destination options to customers than ever before.
