

Revvity Wins Permanent Injunction Enforcing Agreements with Cloud Software Group

2025-02-20

WALTHAM, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Today, Revvity, Inc. (NYSE: RVTY) announced that the Massachusetts Superior Court has ruled in its favor and will issue a permanent injunction to enforce Revvity's rights under its agreements with Cloud Software Group (CSG) related to the Spotfire® software.

This ruling follows a preliminary injunction issued in April 2024, which will become permanent, ensuring uninterrupted access to Spotfire software and support for Revvity and its customers, protecting operational continuity and service quality.

"We are pleased with the court's decision upholding our agreements and the commitments made to our customers," said Kevin Willoe, SVP and general manager at Revvity Signals Software. "This ruling reinforces our dedication to delivering the reliable, high-quality service that empowers scientists to drive meaningful discoveries. We look forward to continuing our historically collaborative and productive partnership with CSG as the exclusive provider of Spotfire to the research and clinical markets through 2034 and hopefully beyond."
