Rambus to Participate in National Rebuilding Day

Volunteers join Rebuilding Together Peninsula to assist local community

SUNNYVALE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Rambus Inc. (NASDAQ:RMBS), one of the world's premier technology licensing companies, today announced that its volunteers will join Rebuilding Together Peninsula (RTP) and other community leaders to support National Rebuilding Day. For the 10th consecutive year, Rambus will contribute to revitalizing houses of less fortunate families of the San Francisco Peninsula.

On Saturday, April 30, 2011 beginning at 8:00am, Rambus volunteers will conduct general home repair projects to support the Momentum for Mental Health's Mountain View facility located at 2327 Heather Court in Mountain View, California. Volunteers will provide critical repairs and modifications to housing that benefits the low-income elderly, the physically challenged, families with children, military veterans, single and foster parents, and others in need. Photos and interview opportunities are available throughout the day.

"For 10 years, Rambus has been an outstanding community partner bringing skilled talent and other valuable resources to renovation projects throughout the San Francisco Peninsula," said Seana O'Shaughnessy, executive director of Rebuilding Together Peninsula. "Whether it's a single mom struggling to care for her child and parents or an agency that serves many in need, Rambus always brings tremendous enthusiasm and resources to their projects. We know we can count on them for their competence and compassion. They truly are a good neighbor."
