2023 Political Contributions Report

Corporate Political Contributions

Our Policy on Political Contributions states that, in rare cases, we can make financial contributions to candidates for office. We made no such corporate contributions in 2023. Such contributions must be made in compliance with any and all applicable laws and must be approved by the Senior Vice President of Government Affairs, in consultation with appropriate members of JetBlue senior leadership. The Senior Vice President of Government Affairs and Associate General Counsel provides periodic updates to the Board of Directors on JetBlue's political activities, including any corporate contributions.

Trade Association Memberships

JetBlue is a member of three industry trade associations, Airlines for America (A4A), International Air Transport Association (IATA), and Association of Latin American Airlines (ALTA). We have committed to disclose trade association memberships where JetBlue pays more than $25,000 in annual dues. We do not make financial contributions to our trade associations other than in the form of customary dues and charges. Our dues to each for 2023:

- International Air Transport Association (IATA)      $125,458
- Airlines for America (A4A)      $2,306,352
- Association of Latin American Airlines (ALTA)      $5,000 and $5,000 in travel certificates

JetBlue is also a member of non-industry related entities including:

- Partnership for New York City ($13,000)
- Economic Club of Washington, DC ($10,500)
- US Chamber of Commerce ($5,000 + $5,000 in tickets)
- Queens Chamber of Commerce ($5,000)
- New England Council ($5,000)
- Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce ($5,000)
- Association for a Better New York ($5,000)
- Westchester Business Council ($5,000)
- South Florida Hispanic Chamber of Commerce ($5,000)
- Long Island Association ($2,500 + $2,500 in travel certificates)
- Worcester Chamber of Commerce ($1,000)

JetBlue PAC

The JetBlue Airways Corporation Crewmember Good Government Fund (JetBlue PAC) is a non-partisan Political Action Committee that provides crewmembers an opportunity to participate in the political process. Contributions made by JetBlue PAC are funded entirely by the voluntary contributions of JetBlue crewmembers, and no corporate funds are used. JetBlue PAC files reports with the Federal Election Commission which are publicly available and provide an itemization of receipts and disbursements.
