

Powering connections

American Airlines keeps North Carolina thriving

North Carolina State University conducted a recent study to show the economic impact of American's hub operation at Charlotte Douglas International Airport (CLT).

AMERICAN'S CLT HUB

-  Injects more than $30 billion into the North Carolina economy
-  Serves more than 170 destinations, including 41 international destinations
-  Supports nearly 150,000 jobs statewide
-  Facilitates growth across eight North Carolina airports
-  Generates $1.7 billion in state and local government revenue
-  Operates as a "connection factory"

AMERICAN IN NORTH CAROLINA

THAT RESULTS IN

- A thriving economy
- More opportunities for business development
- Appeal for tourism and major events
- A disproportionate amount of air service relative to local demand

