PRESS RELEASE

Dori Alvarez
305-520-3173
mediarelations@aa.com

FOR RELEASE: Wednesday, April 10, 2013

AMERICAN AIRLINES TO HIRE ADDITIONAL RESERVATIONS REPRESENTATIVES IN SOUTH FLORIDA

MIAMI – American Airlines today announced plans to hire 80 additional full-time, home-based Reservations Representatives in South Florida. The new employees will be able to work from home, assisting customers with their travel needs by providing information on schedules, fares and flight information. The airline will begin a seven-week training program on June 10.

The first local group of 88 home-based representatives was hired last winter and is currently in training.

"We had a tremendous response when we posted the first 88 openings, and we are glad to be able to offer additional jobs," said Marilyn DeVoe, American's Vice President – Miami. "These positions will help us provide exceptional service to our customers and assist them with all of their travel needs."

American and its regional affiliate American Eagle currently employ 9,850 employees in South Florida, making AMR Corporation one of the largest private employers in the area.

Candidates can visit aacareers.com to view the job posting and submit their application by April 15. Candidates must be 18 years or older, have a GED or high school diploma, and be located within a 75-mile radius of Miami International Airport.

About American Airlines
American Airlines focuses on providing an exceptional travel experience across the globe, serving more than 260 airports in more than 50 countries and territories. American's fleet of nearly 900 aircraft fly more than 3,500 daily flights worldwide from hubs in Chicago, Dallas/Fort Worth, Los Angeles, Miami and New York. American flies to nearly 100 international locations including important markets such as London, Madrid, Sao Paulo and Tokyo. With more than 500 new planes scheduled to join the fleet, including continued deliveries of the Boeing 737 family of aircraft and new additions such as the Boeing 777-300ER and the Airbus A320 family of aircraft, American is building toward the youngest and most modern fleet among major U.S. carriers. American's website, AA.com®, provides customers with easy access to check and book fares, and personalized news, information and travel offers. American's AAdvantage® program, one of the most popular frequent flyer programs in the world, lets members redeem miles for flights to almost 950 destinations worldwide, as well as flight upgrades, vacation packages, car rentals, hotel stays and other retail products. The airline also offers nearly 40 Admirals Club® locations worldwide providing comfort, convenience, and an environment with a full range of services making it easy for customers to stay productive without interruption. American is a founding member of the oneworld® alliance, which brings together some of the best and biggest airlines in the world, including global brands like British Airways, Cathay Pacific, Iberia Airlines, Japan Airlines, LAN and Qantas. Together, its members serve more than 840 destinations with some 9,000 daily flights to nearly 160 countries and territories. Connect with American on Twitter @AmericanAir or Facebook.com/AmericanAirlines. American Airlines, Inc. and American Eagle Airlines, Inc. are subsidiaries of AMR Corporation. AMR Corporation common stock trades under the symbol "AAMRQ" on the OTCQB marketplace, operated by OTC Markets Group.

###