

Art Torno

Senior Vice President – International and Cargo

Art Torno is senior vice president — International and Cargo. In this role, he is responsible for international operations and cargo services.

He previously served as vice president – Mexico, the Caribbean and Latin America. He joined the airline in 1979 as a flight attendant and has served in various positions and management roles for the company, including vice president – New York, vice president – Caribbean and Latin American Operations and vice president – Miami. Before being named a corporate officer in November 1996, he served as managing director – Miami and managing director – San Juan. He was the airline's manager of Passenger Services at Los Angeles International Airport; general manager at Bakersfield, California; a group supervisor at Los Angeles and a supervisor at New York's LaGuardia Airport. Before joining the airline, Art was a staff auditor with the accounting firm of Arthur Young & Company in Philadelphia.

He is an executive sponsor for American's Caribbean Employee Business Resource Group, an employee-led organization that works to educate people about the high value of the Caribbean market and raise awareness of the Caribbean culture. Art serves on the board of governors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, the board of directors of United Way of Miami-Dade and is co–chair of One Community, One Goal. He has been involved in many community organizations, including the boards of NYC & Company, New York Pops, the Regional Planning Association, Greater Jamaica Development Corporation, Citizens Budget Commission and York College Foundation.

A native of Camden, New Jersey, Art received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from La Salle University in Philadelphia in 1977.