Snapshot of American in Canada

American Airlines

01 Network

American Airlines flies up to 69 daily flights* from seven Canadian cities to its U.S. hubs in Charlotte (CLT), Chicago (ORD), Dallas/Fort Worth (DFW), Los Angeles (LAX), Miami (MIA), New York (JFK and LGA), Philadelphia (PHL), Phoenix (PHX) and Washington, D.C. (DCA).

02 Toronto

From Toronto, American's first Canadian destination, the airline operates its largest operation at Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ) with up to 32 daily departures to nine of American's U.S. hubs.

Admirals Club®, Terminal 3
(Reopened in August 2017) The new 2,400 square-foot contemporary space provides:

- Seating for nearly 70 guests
- Complimentary snacks and drinks
- Dedicated bar
- Internet-accessible computers
- Complimentary Wi-Fi
- Power ports

03 Cargo

In 2016, American flew more than 9 million pounds of cargo and mail in and out of Canada, including automobile parts, fresh fish, fruits, vegetables and flowers.

04 Joint Businesses

BRITISH AIRWAYS

American's Atlantic Joint Business agreement with British Airways offers Canadian customers direct, daily flights to London (LHR/LGW) from YVR, YYC, YYZ and YUL.

American's Pacific Joint Business agreement with Japan Airlines (JAL) offers Canadian customers direct, daily flights to Tokyo (NRT) from YVR.

05 People

American employs approximately 300 team members throughout Canada.

56%

Canadian Team Members

American's longest serving Canadian employee has been with the airline for 43 years.

06 Timeline

1941 — American operates first flight to Canada, arriving in Toronto

1972 — American begins service from Montréal

1984 — American operates first flight from Ottawa

1987 — American launches flights from Vancouver

1989 — American launches service from Calgary

2003 — American begins seasonal service from Edmonton

2011 — American begins service from Québec City to PHL

2017 — American opens enhanced Admirals Club lounge in Toronto

*from June 2018

Updated November 2017