From Rebounds to the Ramp

6/6/2018

In basketball, you get called for traveling. Here at American, it's what we do. Envoy Fleet Service clerk Steffond Johnson knows a thing or two about both. At 6 feet, 8 inches tall, the former Los Angeles Clippers forward is hard to miss on the DFW ramp. And after hitting the hardwood in the United States, Turkey, Cyprus, Uruguay, Italy, Venezuela and the Philippines, he's learned a lot about teamwork and camaraderie. Hear how those lessons have carried over to the #AATeam and the role culture has played in turning his job into a career in the video below.
