

NEWS RELEASE

Ready, willing and able

10/29/2019

PHL Flight Attendant Sarah Tuberty shares her story on living with a congenital limb difference and how it never stood in the way of her dreams. She describes her experience with surgery and talks about the sports she played, places she traveled and her aerial arts skills. Sarah challenges us to redefine our assumptions of disability. See her story and learn how we all can be more inclusive.