

American Airlines and Royal Air Maroc Launch Codeshare Agreement

12/20/2019

American Airlines has launched a reciprocal codeshare agreement with Morocco's largest airline, Royal Air Maroc, to add new options for travel to Morocco starting Dec. 26.

American's customers will be able to purchase select Royal Air Maroc flights to Casablanca, Morocco (CMN), which will provide seamless connecting service to Marrakech, Morocco (RAK). These flights are available for sale now for travel beginning December 26. The codeshare will expand to additional cities across the African continent in early 2020.

"Royal Air Maroc is a premier African carrier and their hub in Casablanca is perfectly situated to offer our customers convenient connections between North America and over 40 destinations throughout Africa," said Vasu Raja, American's Senior Vice President of Network Strategy. "With Royal Air Maroc's upcoming entry into the oneworld® alliance and our recently announced service between Philadelphia and Casablanca, we are committed to creating more opportunities for our customers to visit unique destinations in Africa."

Beginning in early 2020, the codeshare agreement will provide American's customers access to popular destinations in Africa, including:

- Abidjan, Cote d'Ivoire (ABJ)
- Accra, Ghana (ACC)
- Lagos, Nigeria (LOS)
- Luanda, Angola (LAD)
- Monrovia, Liberia (ROB)

The codeshare will also allow Royal Air Maroc customers to connect to new destinations throughout American's domestic network beginning Dec. 26.

American will begin seasonal service to CMN June 4 as the only U.S. carrier with nonstop service to Morocco, which will be operated three times per week. Flights are available for purchase now.
