American Airlines expands its AAdvantage partnerships as Fiji Airways joins the award-winning travel rewards program

2025-03-31

AAdvantage® members can now earn Loyalty Points when traveling on Fiji Airways — the newest member of the oneworld alliance.

FORT WORTH, Texas — AAdvantage® members will have more ways to enhance their travel experience when flying on Fiji Airways, Fiji's national carrier. On April 1, Fiji Airways will officially join the award-winning AAdvantage® travel rewards program and become the newest full member of the oneworld alliance.

"The partnership between American and Fiji Airways is giving customers more ways to unlock new travel experiences. As part of the AAdvantage® program, members flying on either airline can immediately enjoy an elevated travel experience," said Anmol Bhargava, American's Senior Vice President of Alliances. "Travel is better as an AAdvantage® member, and American extends a very warm welcome to Fiji Airways customers joining the program."

The enhanced collaboration will provide AAdvantage® members a seamless experience when traveling on Fiji Airways. Members with status will be able to enjoy benefits such as priority check-in, priority boarding, complimentary baggage allowance, pre-reserved seats, lounge access and more, when traveling with Fiji Airways.

"We are delighted to join the American Airlines AAdvantage® program, marking a new chapter for Fiji Airways and offering more opportunities for our loyal customers to experience the magic of Fiji," said Andre Viljoen, Managing Director and CEO of Fiji Airways. "This partnership will provide a seamless travel experience, making it easier for travelers to reach Fiji's tropical paradise while enjoying enhanced benefits. With our new membership in the oneworld alliance, we look forward to offering greater connectivity to destinations around the globe, including the U.S., and welcoming more visitors to experience the warmth, culture and beauty of Fiji."
