Behind the bar: Innovative spirits join American's lounge offerings

2025-03-18

American Airlines is shaking things up in the Admirals Club® and Flagship® lounges this spring with fresh new spirits perfect for any getaway.

Along with more than 40 spirit options, customers can now kick back with a glass of Horse Soldier Bourbon Whiskey or Still G.I.N., By Dre and Snoop, two perfect options for sipping* on while waiting for their next flight.

Premium-spirit Still G.I.N. By Dre and Snoop is a modern, defiantly smooth clean light gin. Notes of tangerine, jasmine and coriander give an aromatic finish that makes any cocktail lover feel like they have a little more swagger than most.

The dynamic duo engineered a masterpiece gin that's been designed to complement every mixer and taste. Launched in 2024, this gin is perfect for those looking for their cocktails to resemble their playlists: expertly curated.

For those that are bourbon enthusiasts, try a fresh new take on bourbon in the lounges.

Handcrafted with all-natural ingredients and aged to perfection, Horse Soldier Bourbon Whiskey isn't just a drink; it's a story in a glass. Crafted with serious dedication and delivering just the right amount of kick, this whiskey is a must-try on anyone's next adventure.

Horse Soldier's Premium Straight Bourbon Whiskey is undeniably smooth. It's made from small batches of bourbon and non-chill filtered to provide a full-bodied and decadent finish. Pair a glass with American's charcuterie offerings, found across all lounges, for an elevated lounge visit.
