

NEWS RELEASE

Expanding horizons: American Airlines unveils more than 50 new routes this year

10/31/2023

2023 continues to be a big year for American. This year, the airline has launched or announced more than 50 new routes. With service to more than 350 destinations around the world, American continues to build a comprehensive network across the United States and the world.

Learn more below about our new routes we will add through the summer of 2024.

American has launched or announced more than 50 new routes that it will operate through summer 2024. These new routes help the airline continue to build a comprehensive global network for customers across more than 350 destinations.

50+
NEW ROUTES

Eight new destinations to explore in 2024

CPH

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

NAP

NAPLES, ITALY

NCE

NICE, FRANCE

GHB

GOVERNOR'S HARBOUR, BAHAMAS

TIJ

TIJUANA, MEXICO

OCJ

OCHO RIOS, JAMAICA

PSC

PASCO, WASHINGTON

HYA

HYANNIS, MASSACHUSETTS

The largest airline connecting the United States to Mexico, the Caribbean and Latin America this winter

350+

peak-day flights (Saturdays) –
the airline's largest-ever schedule to the region.

93

destinations –
the most nonstops to the most destinations of any U.S. airline.

The most seats this winter

This winter, American's nine convenient hub gateways will offer customers more ways to plan their trips near and far. With more seats to fly customers to holiday dinners with family, to build sand castles at the beach, or to take a long-awaited vacation, start packing for new memories and more excitement this winter on American Airlines.

CLT DCA DFW LAX MIA
NYC ORD PHL PHX

