'Main Cabin Energy' unlocked: American Airlines offers ultra-low awards for AAdvantage mileage redemption

2025-05-15

FORT WORTH, Texas — American Airlines is making it easier than ever to travel by offering more than one million Main Cabin seats on domestic flights (excluding Alaska and Hawaii) redeemable at just 5,000 AAdvantage® miles one way. As an added bonus, Main Cabin seats on trans-Atlantic flights will be redeemable starting as low as 15,000 AAdvantage® miles one way.

Whether it's a bucket list destination, long overdue family reunion, college football game or just about anything else, these award tickets let customers book any day of the week for travel throughout August and September. The promotion starts today and runs through May 28, 2025.

No blackout dates, no problems

Seats are exclusively available to members of American's AAdvantage® program to must-see domestic destinations including Chicago; Las Vegas; Orlando, Florida; and Miami, and desirable international locations including Cancun, Mexico; London; Rome; and so many more. With no blackout dates in August and September, there's no limit to where — and when — customers can go.

Travel made easier with the AAdvantage program

It's free and easy to join the AAdvantage® program. Members can earn miles and Loyalty Points that unlock status and an elevated travel experience — and the best way to earn is with an AAdvantage® co-branded credit card.
